Initiatives taken by the Royal Spas of Europe aim to promote both the long tradition as well as the modern facilities of their baths and thermal centres. Health offers of the highest quality are complemented by attractive packages against a cultural and historical background.

The Royal Spas of Europe have the common intention of meeting the highest quality requirements. For this reason a catalogue of criteria has been produced which has to be complied with by the Royal Spas of Europe with respect to their offers for health, wellness and fitness, thermal facilities, medical care, infrastructure, standards of hotels and cultural events.
